Parsi Cuisine

by Dinshaw Avari

Bringing an exquisite delight of tastes sounds and sights, the Yacht Club Committee excelled in planning an evening of perfection on February 4th, 2012.

The setting was wonderful with cloudless skies, a gentle northerly wind and an exceptionally high tide, all neatly "planned and executed" by the committee. Hillary & his band played '70's & 80'S melodies on this marvelous evening.

The harbor launches, fishing boats and trawlers were decorated in colourful bright lights to celebrate Eid-e-Milad and the harbor was a kaleidoscopic display of colour and lights, reminiscent of Hong Kong, overlooking Kowloon!

The theme was a typical, Bombay-style Parsi 'fine' dining. On entering our group sat at the tables facing the harbor, with a superb front row view, talk about "wily Parsis!" One hundred and twenty thirsty club members & guests sipped their Scottish teas and limo-panis and grape juices followed by an early dinner at 9:30. A splendid typical Parsi fare was served, catered by the Karachi Parsi Institute. Laid out stylishly the entrées, muramba, sev, kuchumber, chapatti and achar was followed by patra ni machi (fish in banana leaf), khari murghi with Sali (gravy chicken with straw potatoes), and our famous dhansak. The evening of culinary delights concluded with delicately backed Parsi custard. Luckily, our table was adjacent to the service table, so 'yours truly' had a field day serving his guests.

What a brilliant evening, enjoyed by all. Now we are looking forward to our next major evening, a Bohri evening on Saturday, Aril 21st.
